

Risk Reduction

OhioHealth High Risk Breast Clinic

Surveillance, screening, consultation and clinical breast exams, evaluation of personal risk factors and family history to determine your medical management, referrals for genetic counseling if necessary, instruction on preventative measures and lifestyle changes and information to share with your referring physician. Call 614-566-4321 or log onto OhioHealth's breast health site. Clinics available at 500 Thomas Lane, Suite 2B, Columbus, Ohio 43214 and 285 East State Street, Suite 300, Columbus, Ohio 43215.

BreastCancerTrials.org

Search for clinical trials recruiting people with BRCA or other gene mutations.

National Cancer Institute - Genetics of Breast and Ovarian Cancer

Find information on genetic testing and genetic risk factors for breast cancer.

National Cancer Institute - Genetic Testing

Find information on genetic testing.

National Institutes of Health

Search for clinical trials recruiting people with BRCA or other gene mutations.

National Society of Genetic Counselors

Find a genetic counselor or information on genetic counseling.

Office of the Surgeon General

Find a tool called "My Family Health Portrait" to create a chart of your family's health history for discussions with your health care provider.

SAVE LIVES AND END BREAST CANCER FOREVER